Sr. Legal Assistant: Joyce Harris jkh@tucker-holmes.com

Kaitlyne grew up in New York's Hudson Valley, and earned dual bachelor's degrees from the State University of New York (SUNY) College at Oswego in 2020. After graduating, Kaitlyne moved to Colorado to attend the University of Denver, Sturm College of Law.

As a law student, Kaitlyne joined the Denver Journal of International Law and Policy (DJILP) as a staff editor and later, a technical editor, and also gained valuable experience in civil litigation and transactions at local law firms. During her final semester, she worked as a judicial intern to Judge David H. Yun of the Colorado Court of Appeals.

In May 2023, Kaitlyne received her Juris Doctor and accepted a position in Denver District Court as judicial law clerk to the Hon. Chief Judge Christopher J. Baumann. During the nearly two years she spent in Chief Judge Baumann's courtroom, Kaitlyne wrote numerous orders resolving district court appeals and civil matters of all types, and also assisted the Chief Judge in conducting many court and jury trials. Licensed to practice law in 2024, Kaitlyne joined Tucker Holmes, P.C. in April of 2025, where she is involved in all aspects of the firm's litigation practice. If you cannot find Kaitlyne in the office, you can often find her spending time with her pets, snowboarding, or paddle boarding.
